Dear Ms. Williams:

Recently, we received your letter informing us that a contribution had been listed from SBC on July 5, 2005, in the amount of $100, which coexisted with the 2005 Special Session of the Kansas Legislature. After reviewing our records and discussing the matter with Chris Carroll, then Regional Director for External Affairs of SBC, it became apparent that the $100 check was not sent nor received until after the Special Session concluded on July 6th.

Therefore, the listing of the contribution was a posting error. The date of receipt of the check was July 15th, 2005, and our 2005 contribution report should be amended accordingly. No check was solicited or received during the 2005 Special Session. We apologize for this error and any confusion that it may have caused.

Please contact me should we need to do anything additional to resolve this matter. Additional questions may be referred to Anita Kaiser, Treasurer of Kansas for Yoder, or Chris Carroll, now lobbyist for AT&T.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Kevin W. Yoder".
Kevin W. Yoder
State Representative
